

additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act for quieting no-sessions, enrolling conveyances, and securing the estates of purchasers;

The said bill was then read.

Mr. Brookhart moved that the bill be rejected;

Determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Pearce, said bill was amended by striking out from the word 'conveyance,' in the 14th line, of the 3rd section, to the end of said section;

Mr. Brookhart moved to strike out the third section of the bill;

Determined in the negative;

On motion by Mr. Handy, said bill was amended by striking out the fourth section of the bill;

On motion by Mr. Handy, said bill was further amended by striking out the 6th, 7th, and 8th sections of the bill;

The said bill was then placed in the hands of the chair;

Mr. Brookhart moved to withdraw the bill from the hands of the chair, for the purpose of amendment;

Determined in the negative;

The question was then put, shall the said bill pass?

Resolved in the affirmative.

The resolution from the senate, in favour of William C. Conine, was taken up for consideration, read the second time, and assented to

On motion by Mr. Teackle, the house took up for consideration the amendments proposed by the senate, to the resolution authorising the Librarian to dispose of the surplus books remaining in the State Library;

The said amendments were then read the second time, severally assented to, and the resolution ordered to be engrossed.

The resolution submitted by Mr. Gantt, on the 3d inst., relative to authorising the executive, to contract for such new furniture and repairs, as in their judgment may seem necessary and proper, in the house of delegates, was taken up for consideration;

On motion by Mr. Brown, of Queen Anne's, said resolution was amended by adding at the end thereof the following: 'Provided the sum shall not exceed two hundred dollars;'

The said resolution was then read the second time as amended, and assented to.

On motion by Mr. Holmes, the bill reported by him, entitled, An act to authorise the repair of a bridge, in Baltimore county, was taken up for consideration;